

2003 Capital One Bowl

The 2003 Capital One Bowl was a post-season college football bowl game between the Penn State Nittany Lions and the Auburn Tigers on January 1, 2003, at the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Florida. Auburn won the game 13–9; Auburn running back Ronnie Brown was the game's MVP, rushing for 184 yards and two touchdowns.<sup>[1]</sup>

References

- "Brown gets carries, yards; Johnson gets frustrated" (<https://web.archive.org/web/20131104203411/http://scores.espn.go.com/ncf/recap?gameId=230010002>). ESPN.com. Archived from the original (<http://scores.espn.go.com/ncf/recap?gameId=230010002>) on November 4, 2013. Retrieved December 2, 2012.

2003 Capital One Bowl

Penn State Nittany Lions	Auburn Tigers
(9–3)	(8–4)
Big Ten	SEC
9	13
Head coach:	Head coach:
Joe Paterno	Tommy Tuberville
AP Coaches	BCS	AP Coaches
10	10	12	19	22
			NR
	1	2	3	4
	...	...	...	...
Penn State	3	3	0	3
				9
Auburn	0	0	7	6
				13
Date	January 1, 2003
Season	2002
Stadium	Florida Citrus Bowl
Location	Orlando, Florida
MVP	Ronnie Brown
Favorite	Penn State by 7.5
Referee	Jack Cramer (Big East)
Attendance	66,334
United States TV coverage
Network	ABC
Announcers	Sean McDonough , David Norrie			